

Extra Information to Children's Work Report

Supplemental information was supplied after the report was compiled, as follows:

Colwall

The Enigma Group for 11s-16s meets twice monthly, and has made a contribution to services, as well as holding its own services. Numbers fluctuate, but there are about 7 young people. They have even made their own CD.

Much Marcle

The school holds a service in church usually once a term (as with other schools such as Eastnor). Some workshops have been held in the church at the instigation of the Friends of S^t Batholomew's, with children looking at details of and in the building. As with other church schools, several school governors are church members.

Wellington Heath

The church does not have an active Sunday school, but has a well-established annual drama service, which many children and families from the school attend. There is also a Christmas party and Christingle service.
