

Flourishing Together

Diocese of Hereford Headteachers and Senior Leaders' Education Conference
Friday 4th July 2025 at The Left Bank Village, Hereford (9.30am – 3.30pm)

Our speakers from the National Society for Education for the Church of England are:

Andy Wolfe: Executive Director of Education

Andy oversees the programmes, networks and research of the Church of England Foundation for Educational Leadership – working with thousands of school leaders across the UK. He is committed to combining rich theological reflection with evidence-informed approaches to improving teaching, learning and leadership in schools. He is co-author of the publication 'Flourishing Together: A Christian Vision for Students, Educators and Schools.'

Dr Margaret James: Director of SIAMS

Margaret is the National Director of SIAMS and has a passion for the flourishing of pupils and adults through their time spent in successful Church schools. She is an experienced leader within Church of England education and has worked in school, local authority, diocesan and national education leadership roles for approximately 20 years. In creating the new SIAMS framework, Margaret drew on her research as well as that of other academics who have carried out extensive research on the impact of inspection on school communities. Drawing on her experience of working with small rural schools, she will be exploring how the SIAMS Framework can contribute to and celebrate the flourishing of our Church schools.

Allana Gay: Lead for Equity, Diversity, Inclusion and Justice

Allana is a Headteacher and founding member of BAMEed. Her experience as an educator and school leader arches over secondary and primary schools all of whom have been in challenging or deprived circumstances. Allana shares her leadership experiences across the sectors to encourage primary and secondary schools to work in true partnership and seeks to change the outward face of education by ensuring equality for all within the education sector. Allana is also a coach for Women leading in Education and an Academy governor..

Elizabeth Howat: Lead for Archbishops' Young Leaders Award

This award exists to see a generation of young people empowered to transform society. Through working in partnership with schools, churches and communities, they develop opportunities for young people to grow in leadership, faith and character. Find out more how the award equips children and young people in character education, builds their leadership skills and faith development, and empowers them to undertake a variety of transformational social action projects in their local communities.

Joining our Diocesan Net Zero Leads for Schools :

Let's Go Zero is the national campaign uniting teachers, pupils, parents and their schools as they all work together to be zero carbon by 2030. Find out how they support you with this huge challenge, helping to transform schools with the aim of safeguarding the planet for future generations.
