Discipleship and Growth

Discipleship Enablers Learning Community

Growing as a follower of Jesus, and learning to help others to do the same

Are you hungry to go deeper in following Jesus, and passionate about helping others to do the same? Discipleship Enablers is a new monthly learning community for those who support others to grow in faith (for example small group leaders, youth leaders, licensed lay ministers, clergy) and want to see discipleship develop in local churches.

Across the programme, participants will:

- Explore simple principles and questions that help us go deeper with God across the whole of life
- Practise these in a supportive culture of mutual accountability

- Reflect together on how to apply these approaches in your context, enabling others to grow in faith too

Format: monthly sessions on Wednesday evenings (2 hours) over 12 months. Monthly sessions will take place at Cawley Hall, Luston HR6 0DS (near Ludlow). The programme is run jointly by the Diocese of Hereford and St Peter's Saltley Trust.

Next steps:

- Taster session: Wednesday 4 March 2026 (6.30-8.30pm)
- Day retreat: Saturday 18 April 2026
- Monthly sessions begin: Wednesday 6 May 2026 (6.30-8.30pm)

Leading your Church into Growth (LyCiG) Hereford provides a monthly learning community for incumbents, supporting sustained, peer-based reflection on leading churches into growth in local contexts. ## Licensed Lay Funeral Ministry

Becoming a Licensed Lay Funeral Minister offers a distinctive way of serving people at one of the most significant moments of their lives. It is a vocation that combines deep pastoral listening, confident public ministry, and gentle witness to Christian hope, often among those who rarely engage with the Church. For those with compassion, emotional maturity, and a sense of call to this work, it can be a profoundly meaningful and fruitful ministry.

Licensed Lay Funeral Ministers are authorised by the bishop to lead funeral services on behalf of the Church. They work pastorally with bereaved families, listening with care, shaping services that are personal, prayerful and theologically grounded, and leading funerals with confidence and compassion.

Rooted in local communities, Licensed Lay Funeral Ministers offer a visible Christian presence at times of loss, working collaboratively with clergy, parish teams and funeral directors to serve those who may have little other contact with the Church.

Initial training consists of three Saturday sessions, each running from 10.00am to 4.00pm. Attendance at all three days is required:

Saturday 25 April 2026

Saturday 9 May 2026

Saturday 23 May 2026

These sessions provide a solid grounding in pastoral practice, liturgy, and the practicalities of funeral ministry, including how to work well with families, clergy, and funeral directors, and how to lead services with confidence and care.

Formation, Development and Wellbeing

A Season of Assessment and Review

January to April is a focused season of Assessment and Review. This includes Reviews of Curacy (within Initial Ministerial Development) and Annual Review for Licensed Lay Ministers (Readers/LLMs) and Licensed Lay Workers (LLWs). Together, these rhythms support faithful ministry, encourage growth, and help ensure discernment and decision-making are fair, proportionate, and evidence-based.

For curates, there are three key points: the first at around six months (a formative early check-in); the Second Review (including a curate-led, relational 360 process, leading to a single reflective summary); and, for those nearing completion, the end-of-curacy review and discernment process. This final stage draws together cumulative evidence and formation reflection, with an explicit check-in around trustworthiness and fitness to practise, enabling a clear recommendation and a coherent handover into first-post development. Training Incumbents are integral throughout, offering supervision and evaluative input so that Reviews remain both rigorous and supportive.

Alongside this, many Readers/LLMs and LLWs will be completing Annual Review and, where relevant, licence or PTO endorsement. Annual Review provides a structured opportunity to reflect on the past year and agree an appropriate focus, support, boundaries, and expectations for the year ahead, including wise conversations about capacity, wellbeing, and transitions.

Please hold our curates, Training Incumbents, and Licensed Lay Ministers and Workers in your prayers during this season: for steadiness in prayer and rest; honesty about what is going well and what is hard; confidence to ask for what is needed; and supportive relationships with colleagues and reviewers

Pastoral Supervision for Incumbents

Hereford Diocese, in partnership with St Luke's for Clergy Wellbeing

Ministry brings deep joy and meaning, yet it can also carry weight, complexity, and a quiet cost. As incumbents, you faithfully hold space for others, often without much space held for you.

In partnership with St Luke's for Clergy Wellbeing, the Diocese of Hereford offers pastoral supervision for incumbents: a confidential, structured space to reflect on your ministry, explore challenges, and attend to your spiritual, emotional, and vocational wellbeing.

This isn't line management, therapy, or appraisal. It's a supportive, reflective conversation: time to be listened to, to make meaning, and to be gently held to account in your ministry. It can be particularly helpful when ministry feels pressured, when difficult dynamics or safeguarding questions need careful thought, or when you want to sustain good practice over the long haul.

Supervision can help you to:

- Reflect in a safe, non-judgemental environment
- Navigate complex pastoral or leadership dynamics
- Strengthen clarity, resilience, and vocational imagination
- Notice how God may be meeting you in the midst of it all

Sessions take place every 4–6 weeks, online or in person, with trained and accredited pastoral supervisors. You will be matched according to your context and preferences. Places are available now, as a positive, proactive investment in your wellbeing and sustainability in ministry.
